Historic Rock Castle

EXPECTED PHOTOGRAPHY CODE OF CONDUCT WHILE VISITING:

By initialing each of the itemized rules below you are acknowledging that you have read and agreed to adhere to this code of conduct at all times and fully understand that a breech could result in the termination of your session and potentially any future sessions.

PHOTOGRAPHER _____DATE:_____

_____ Should you, your assistants or your clients/subjects need to change, there are restrooms available at the visitor's center and at the pavilion. Changing anywhere else on the property or in cars is not acceptable.

_____ You, your assistants or your clients/subjects may sit on the furniture on the back porch of the house however it is not to be moved or rearranged for any reason. This also applies to the furniture on the Visitor's Center porch.

_____ Please do not sit on or allow your clients/subjects or assistants to sit on the railing on the front or back porch of the historic home. They are original to the home (over 200 years old). These rails are not stable and may become damaged from such use.

_____ All vehicles must be parked in the lot by the Visitor's Center and may not be parked along the drive or by the house. No vehicles are permitted to travel or be parked anywhere on the premises other than the graveled area unless previously authorized.

_____ Any use of props for your photo sessions must not, in any way, damage or permanently alter the property or buildings. We are not responsible for any damaged or lost items belonging to the photographer, their assistants or clients/subjects.

_____ We do not allow nude or partially nude photographs of any kind to be taken on the property. If you are unsure whether the content of your photo sessions will be acceptable, please seek approval before moving forward.

_____ No form of pyrotechnics (for example smoke machines, fireworks, candles, open flame, etc.) are permitted to be used on the site.

_____ All forms of firearms, ammunition and weapons of any kind are strictly prohibited.

_____ Use of animals is prohibited unless authorized no less than two days prior to photo shoot.

_____ No decorations, temporary fixtures or other objects may be affixed to plants, trees, woodwork, buildings or any architectural feature unless specifically preapproved.

_____ Please remember our contract is with you the photographer and not with your clients. Therefore, it is your responsibility to make the appointments and make sure your payment is made when you arrive for your shoot even if your client/subject is the one making the payment. Any damage to the property or breach in contract will be your responsibility.
